SUPPLEMENT TO SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

The purpose of this statement is to supplement that Settlement Agreement filed with the Commission on February 1, 1993. Section 3 of that Settlement Agreement states that Trudy Mitchell ("Mitchell") shall pay the sum of $35,000.00 to Caroline K. Powley d/b/a Unicorn Slide ("US") as a settlement amount in this case. Section 5 of the Settlement Agreement provides that, in the event that the FCC fails to permit reimbursement of all of US' expenses, US shall have the right to seek reconsideration and/or review of that ruling.

The purpose of this supplement is to clarify the above language. US has incurred over $35,000.00 in prudent and legitimate expenses in filing and prosecuting its application in settling this comparative proceeding and desires to be reimbursed for those expenses. It is the intent of US that it receive full reimbursement of its expenses up to $35,000.00 and that, in the event that the Commission or its delegatee fails to initially permit reimbursement of all of those expenses, that US have the right, although not the obligation, to seek reconsideration and/or review of that ruling. As noted, notwithstanding the language in Section 5 of the Settlement Agreement, it is not the intent of the parties that US have the legal obligation to seek such reconsideration and/or review. Moreover, whether or not US chooses to seek reconsideration and/or review or is successful in such a petition filed with the Commission, it is the intent of the parties that US receive reimbursement for those expenses which the Commission or its delegatee determines are legitimate and prudent with respect to the filing and prosecution of its application and settlement of this proceeding even if that amount is ultimately determined to be less than $35,000.00.
